LET'S CELEBRATE
OVATION Spumanté
in partnership with the Department of Agriculture
SOUTH AFRICA

Ovation SPUMANTE

- A White wine with Sparkle also recognised by the name Ovation Spumante comes straight from South Africa.
- Tropical fruit on the nose and a semi-sweet taste with a light sparkle on the palate makes this wine fit for any occasion.
- Grapes were destemmed, crushed and the juice was cold fermented in tanks to preserve the fruit flavours. The sugar level of the wine was adjusted to 30g/L and bottled with a slight burst of CO2 to give the wine a sparkle.

SHORTWOOD CHARDONNAY / VIOGNIER

- Shortwood Chardonnay is the White Wine introduced from the region of Western Cape, South Africa.
- The wine is a perfect blend of two varietals namely; Chardonnay and Viognier (variety of grapes) used in the making of this white wine, providing it the required rich taste of these varietals.
- It goes well with pork, vegetarian or poultry food menu.

SHORTWOOD COFFEE PINOTAGE

- A Red Wine also recognised by the name Shortwood Coffee Pinotage comes straight from the region of Western Cape, South Africa.
- This Wine is rich in a perfect blend of Coffee, Chocolate and Vanilla, providing a pleasant experience to our taste buds, providing a spicy aftertaste with the presence of spices such as cardamom, cinnamon, dried herbs and candied ginger.
- The food that is specifically advised to pair up with this wine by the wine experts is beef, game (deer, venison) and poultry.

SHORTWOOD ROSE

- A Rose Wine also recognised by the name Shortwood Rose comes straight from South Africa. Rosé accounts for over half of production in that region.
- These wines can feature various grape varieties. Cinsault is often prominent, along with Carignan Grenache, Mourvèdre and Touburen.
- Such a wine is a great partner for a picnic, or a summer dinner at a restaurant where diners order variously salads, fish, or grilled meats.

STOCK PRESTIGE VODKA

- Stock Prestige is a premium luxury vodka launched in Poland.
- It is a clear, high-strength alcoholic beverage made from the two base ingredients of ethanol and water.
- The purity of the ethanol and the quality of the water are essentially the only factors governing the mouth feel and flavor of the finished product.
- It combines Stock's enormous experience over 135 years producing top quality spirits with the most recent technological advancements at our Lublin distillery.

STOCK SAMBUKA

- A great liqueur of the Italian tradition, produced by the natural infusion of two varieties of aniseed: green aniseed and star aniseed.
- Sambuca is traditionally served straight with just one coffee bean added.
- Sambuca is a sweetened anise-flavored liqueur, originating from Italy.
- It is produced by combining a neutral base alcohol from either grain or molasses with essential oils extracted via steam distillation from star anise.

STOCK TRIPLE SEC

- Stock Triple Sec is originated from France.
- It is an orange flavored liqueur that is sweet and clear. It's used in many mixed drinks, and contains about 15 to 40 percent alcohol by volume.
- Triple sec is made by infusing alcohol, generally made from beet sugar, with the peels from bitter not-quite-ripened orange peels during the maceration process.

STOCK LIMONCE

- Stock Limoncello is originated from Italy.
- It is the liqueur of Italian tradition and conviviality, always characterized by a quality recipe with a high concentration of lemon peel, without preservatives, artificial colors and flavors.
- It is for those who want to enjoy a sweet moment with the most delicious lemon touch, perhaps to accompany fruit or ice cream, even as a garnish.
